GCSE Food, preparation and nutrition.

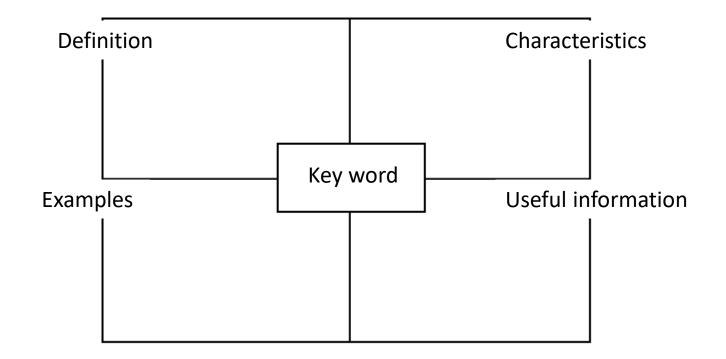

To help you revise for the exam:

- Use the Freya models to help you break down each topic. New Freya cards can be collected from T5.
- Use the Illuminate digital work book.
- Take home practice questions to complete from T5.
- Use Seneca to help you with key information.

https://illuminate.digital/eduqasfood/

Student Username: SALB4 Student Password: STUDENT4

Definition Usually a single cell microscopic organism		Characteristics the need 5 conditions in order to grow quickly and multiply: • Warm temperature • Moisture • Food • Correct pH • time
Examples	Microorganisms		Useful information
Bacteria, moulds, fungi and	yeasts	Not all bacteria's are bad Some are – these are called pathogenic . They cause food poisoning and make food 'go off' and spoil food	